First International Forensic Medicine Conference

Forensic Science & Medicine Best Practices
Medical; Legal; & Human Rights Perspectives

Presented by: UWI Faculty of Medical Sciences: Department of Pathology
In association with: University of Toronto: Centre for Forensic Science & Medicine

Format: - Workshops & Presentations:
Track 1—Governance & Institutional Building for Forensic Science and Medicine in Jamaica
Track 2—Forensic Science & Medicine Interfacing with the Criminal Justice System

Presentations incorporate: Disaster Management and Body Identification; Fatal Child Abuse, Sudden Cardiac Death, Clinical Forensic Medicine, Sharp Force Injury and more

Speakers: Keynote:
Dr. Dinesh Rao, Chief Forensic Pathologist for Jamaica
Dr. Michael Pollanen, Chief Forensic Pathologist for Ontario

Other Speakers Include:
- Ute Hofmeister, Forensic Anthropologist, Intl Committee of the Red Cross
- Justice Mark Rosenberg, Ontario Court of Appeal
- Dr Kris Cunningham, Forensic and Cardiovascular Pathologist
- Dr Alfredo Walker, Forensic Pathologist
- Dr Karen Bishop, Lecturer in FMS - Pathology (Anatomical): Faculty of Medical Sciences, UWI Mona

Take Away:
- Improved Social Justice System for Jamaica

Who Should Attend:
Medical /JACP fraternity; the Judiciary; NGO's with Human Rights interests; Law Enforcement; Security Personnel; Government Representatives, Policy Developers, Medical Students; Anyone wanting to know more about forensic and legal medicine.